New Year Word – “I’m on The Winning Side”

Please, read this prophecy along with the bulletin published today

Prophecy For The Church

Each month of the year be dedicated to different groups for prayer for the; women, children, men, youth and singles, elders, marriage, victory, for the nation for blessing and spiritual upliftment.

Each month, our focus will be on a group to be called “Spread the Good News of salvation”. This is the great commission.

1. There shall be rejoicing and success this year for the children of God.
2. All your adversaries shall bow. Dwell with them with wisdom.
3. The times will try your faith, but you will be empowered to stay strong. Edify and solidify yourself in the Word.
4. The bread and water that cometh to you shall satisfy you
5. Beware of temptations and trials that will attempt to sweep you away from God’s presence, but remember, I’ve given you the power to overcome them.
6. As you remain in me and I in you, mountains shall fall before you this year
7. Someone is saying, my time is running out. The Lord says you are going through this period in order to edify and solidify you for the next level to the place I’m taking you.

Be wise and be sensitive to my Spirit.

8. You shall find peace and comfort in the Lord. Hold on to the truth of the Word and do not let anyone take it from you.

Church Of God In General

9. More souls shall be won into the kingdom of God, and out of souls won, shall great evangelists arise.
10. Churches shall face persecution (saboteurs) from within and outside. I advise you to remain strong.
11. The love of many shall wax cold because of what will happen in the churches.

12. The workers of iniquity in the church shall be exposed even as some evil workers will arise.
13. Beware of the end time shepherds who will come with their sweet words. They shall draw many away from the truth of the Word.
14. Be prepared at all times, and let the Word be in thine heart at all times.

The World In General

15. There shall be natural disaster in places not expected, and they shall be at unprecedented levels. But I've taken care of your journeys and movements.
16. There shall be great inventions in the medical field. New drugs that can cure certain terminal diseases shall be approved and introduced.
17. There shall be confusion in the political scene of the nations. Prayer is therefore essential for His grace on the communities and the people.
18. Nations shall betray each other and many shall be exposed to terror attacks.
19. Pray for the nation of Israel as they face battle in five different fronts in the coming year.
"Pray for the peace of Jerusalem, they shall prosper that love thee"-Ps 122:6
20. Gradually, preparation for the anti-Christ starts has started with economic activities and technological breakthroughs. Pray and be more fervent not to fall into this satanic trap!
21. The dark secret of a particular nation shall be exposed during the year
22. Pray to avert a terrible plane crash, but I've taken care of your safety
23. Children of God to be vigilant and to bless their food and water. You will not eat the food of your enemy this year
24. Pray for divine protection as diseases shall spread through water and air, but it will not come near you.
25. Certain nations shall survive famine by My grace,
26. The political climate in Nigeria will be unstable, but pray against your blood or that of any of your family not be shed. The days are evil.

Blessed Be The Name Of The Lord!
